

International trekking & climbing Festival in the Khumbu

Year of Asia UIAA Global Youth Summit 2011
20-28th November 2011

Who for?

Young climbers over 16 years old and trainers welcomed by Khumjung Youth Club and endorsed by NMA

We would like to invite you to participate in this Festival to explore climbing possibilities in the Khumbu and take part in the Khumbu festival. Climbing in the shadow of Mt Everest will be a unique opportunity in the heart of the Sagermatha National Park, a UNESCO world heritage site. Participants will have the chance to present climbing from their own country and to have discussions each evening on an important climbing or mountaineering topics. Maximum: 2 participants / country. Support to Asian countries on a first come first served basis. The language of the meet is English. Minimum climbing level lead level is Fr 5. Every participant will be partnered up with a Nepali climber to have a more intimate glimpse into the life of the Nepali climber. If you can only come for one week please ask the organizers for the reduced programme.

Accommodation: Hotel and mountain lodges

Aims:

- Exchange stories and techniques for the high mountains with sherpas
- Learn about climbing training & developing new routes
- Develop a new bouldering area with making a route plan
- Talk about big wall techniques, using traditional protection
- Find out about ice climbing competitions and techniques
- Trek in a beautiful place & enjoy the Khumbu festival & discovering more about local culture and climate change

About UIAA Global Youth Summit events:

- These events are a great opportunity to meet a varied group of young climbers from home and abroad, make new friends, as well as exchange climbing techniques.
- During the event we will also share knowledge (demonstrations, lectures and experience) of climbing and mountaineering, ecological issues in Asia, high altitude medicine and living with mountain communities
